Privacy Policy and Terms and Conditions — Ipca HR Recruitment App

1. Introduction and acceptance of terms

Ipca Laboratories Limited ("Ipca", "we", "us", "our", "Company") operates this HR Recruitment application ("App") to manage job applications from candidates. This document sets out, in a single continuous statement: (a) our Privacy Policy, explaining how we collect, use, store, and protect your personal data in compliance with applicable Indian law, including the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023 ("DPDP Act"); and (b) our Terms and Conditions, governing your use of the App.

By registering on or using the App, you agree to be bound by both the Privacy Policy and the Terms and Conditions set out below. If you do not agree, please do not use the App. This document applies to all candidates who register, apply, or interview for a position at Ipca through the App.

2. Eligibility

You must be at least 18 years of age and legally eligible to work in India to use this App. You must provide accurate, current, and complete information during registration and throughout the application process.

3. Data we collect

We collect the following categories of personal data when you use this app:

- Identity data: name, date of birth, PAN number, passport number (if applicable), face photograph, and identity verification details obtained through Aadhaar-based DigiLocker / offline e-KYC in the form of a masked Aadhaar / Aadhaar Reference Number only
- Contact data: mobile number, email address, residential address
- Education data: academic qualifications, institutions attended, marks obtained
- Employment data: previous employers, designations, salary history, experience letters, pay slips
- Biometric data: face scan (via Aadhaar / DigiLocker) for identity verification only
- Application documents: resume, marksheets, degree certificates
- Health/Medical data: where required and permitted by law, information relevant to fitness for work, workplace safety, statutory requirements, or employee benefits

4. How we use your data

Your personal data is used exclusively for the following purposes. Each purpose below is linked to the specific data categories used for it, as required under the DPDP Act:

- Identity verification, as required under applicable law — uses Identity data and Biometric data
- Processing your job application at Ipca Laboratories — uses Identity, Contact, Education, Employment data and Application documents

- Communicating with you about your application status, interview schedules, and offer letters — uses Contact data
- Conducting background verification, by authorised vendors only — uses Identity, Education and Employment data
- Meeting legal and regulatory obligations — may use any category above, as required by the applicable law
- Protecting Ipca's premises, systems, and personnel — uses Identity data
- Managing or defending legal claims and disputes — may use any category above, where relevant

We do not use your data for marketing, profiling, or any purpose unrelated to your current recruitment process.

5. Consequences of not providing your data / withholding consent

Providing certain information is necessary for us to process and evaluate your job application. If you do not provide the personal data or consent requested, we may be unable to process your application, verify your identity, or consider you for the relevant role.

6. Data sharing

We share your data only on a need-to-know basis, for the purposes stated in Section 4, with:

- Aadhaar / DigiLocker services for identity verification (as required by law)
- Authorised background-check and recruitment agencies under strict confidentiality agreements
- Ipca's group companies, subsidiaries, and affiliates
- Authorised consultants and professional service providers
- IT, HRMS, and other technology service providers
- Auditors, legal advisors, and other authorised service providers
- Government, statutory, or regulatory authorities, where required or permitted by law

We never sell your personal data to third parties.

7. Data retention

If your application is successful, your data will be retained as part of your employee record in accordance with our employee data policy.

If your application is unsuccessful or withdrawn, your data will be retained for a period of 12 months from the date of closure of your application, after which it will be permanently deleted from our systems.

You will be notified at least 48 hours before your data is scheduled for deletion, giving you the opportunity to exercise your data rights (see Section 11 below) before deletion takes place.

8. Minors

This App is intended for use by individuals who are at least 18 years of age and legally eligible to work in India, as set out in Section 2 (Eligibility) above. We do not knowingly collect personal data from minors. If we become aware that we have collected personal data from a minor without verifiable parental/guardian consent, we will take steps to delete such data.

9. Personal data you provide about others

If you provide us with personal data relating to any other individual — for example, a referee, an emergency contact, or a former employer's HR contact — you confirm that you are authorised to share that information with us for the stated recruitment purpose, and that you have informed that individual accordingly.

10. Your rights under the DPDP Act, 2023

As a Data Principal under the Digital Personal Data Protection Act, 2023, you have the following rights:

- Right to access: request a summary of your personal data we hold
- Right to correction and completion: request correction of inaccurate data, or completion of incomplete personal data
- Right to erasure: request deletion of your data (subject to legal retention requirements)
- Right to withdraw consent: withdraw your consent at any time; this will not affect any processing done before withdrawal
- Right to grievance redressal: raise a complaint with our Grievance Officer / Data Protection Officer
- Right to nominate: nominate another individual to exercise these rights on your behalf in the event of your death or incapacity

To exercise any of these rights, go to Account → Privacy & Security → Your Data & Rights within the app, or contact our Grievance Officer / Data Protection Officer directly (Section 23 below). We will respond to your request within _____[Insert: e.g. 15 business days] of receipt.

11. Data security

We use industry-standard security measures to protect your personal data, including:

- Encrypted data transmission (HTTPS / TLS)
- Secure server infrastructure with access controls
- Regular security audits and vulnerability assessments
- Restricted access to personal data on a need-to-know basis

In the event of a personal data breach, we will notify the Data Protection Board of India and affected Data Principals in the manner and within the timelines prescribed under the DPDP Act and its rules.

12. Account registration and security

- You are responsible for maintaining the confidentiality of your MPIN and any biometric login method you enable on your device.
- You must not share your login credentials, MPIN, or OTPs with anyone.
- You are responsible for all activity that occurs under your account. Notify us immediately if you suspect unauthorised access.
- We reserve the right to suspend or terminate an account showing signs of fraudulent activity or misuse.

13. Identity verification

As part of the application process, you will be asked to verify your identity via Aadhaar/DigiLocker and complete a live face verification. By proceeding, you confirm that:

- The Aadhaar and identity details you provide belong to you and are accurate.
- You consent to this verification being used solely for recruitment-related identity confirmation, as described in Sections 3–8 above.
- Providing false or another person's identity information may result in immediate disqualification from the recruitment process and, where already employed, appropriate disciplinary action under Ipca's applicable service rules, and, where applicable, legal action.

14. Application process

- Completing the Employment Application Form (EAF) and submitting supporting documents does not guarantee an interview, offer, or employment.
- You are responsible for the accuracy of all information and documents submitted (education records, experience letters, pay slips, etc.). Ipca reserves the right to verify any information provided and to reject an application, withdraw an offer, or take appropriate disciplinary action if the candidate has since joined Ipca, if information is found to be false or misleading.
- Interview schedules, rounds, and modes (in-person or video) are determined by the hiring team and may be changed or rescheduled at their discretion.

15. Video interviews

- Video interviews conducted through the App use a third-party video conferencing SDK. By joining a video interview, you consent to your camera and microphone being used for the duration of the session.
- You are responsible for ensuring a stable internet connection and a suitable environment for your interview.
- Conduct during interviews is expected to be professional. Ipca reserves the right to end an interview session in case of inappropriate conduct.

16. No guarantee of employment

Use of the App and participation in the recruitment process does not create any employment relationship, contract, or guarantee of employment with Ipca. Any offer of employment will be governed by a separate, formal offer letter and employment agreement.

17. Your responsibilities

You agree not to:

- Use the App for any purpose other than applying for a genuine job opportunity at Ipca.
- Attempt to gain unauthorised access to the App, other candidates' data, or Ipca's systems.
- Upload documents or content that is false, fraudulent, offensive, or infringes on any third party's rights.
- Interfere with or disrupt the App's functioning, including through malware, scraping, or automated access.

18. Intellectual property

All content, branding, design, and technology within the App are the property of Ipca Laboratories Limited or its licensors. You may not copy, modify, distribute, or reverse-engineer any part of the App without our prior written consent.

19. Limitation of liability

To the maximum extent permitted by law, Ipca shall not be liable for any indirect, incidental, or consequential damages arising from your use of the App, including but not limited to technical issues, data loss, or delays in the recruitment process, except where such liability cannot be excluded under applicable law.

20. Suspension and termination

We reserve the right to suspend or terminate your access to the App at any time, without notice, if we reasonably believe you have violated these Terms, provided false information, or engaged in conduct harmful to Ipca or other candidates.

21. Consent and how it is provided

A copy of this document, together with a separate Candidate Data Privacy Notice and Consent Form, will be provided to every candidate at the point of registration on the App. The candidate's affirmative consent will be recorded before any personal data is collected.

Your acceptance through Ipca's authorised HRMS, Career Portal, Candidate Portal, email, or other electronic platform constitutes valid electronic consent, to the extent permitted by applicable law.

22. Contact & grievances

For any questions, concerns, or data rights requests under this document, contact our designated officer:

23. Governing law

This document is governed by the laws of India. Any disputes arising from this document or your use of the App shall be subject to the exclusive jurisdiction of the courts in Mumbai, Maharashtra.

24. Severability

If any provision of this document is held to be invalid or unenforceable, that provision will be limited or eliminated to the minimum extent necessary, and the remaining provisions will continue in full force and effect.

25. Entire agreement

This document, comprising both the Privacy Policy and Terms and Conditions set out above, constitutes the entire agreement between you and Ipca regarding your use of the App and supersedes any prior agreements on this subject.

26. Changes to this document

We may update this Privacy Policy and Terms and Conditions from time to time. The "Effective Date" at the top of this document will be updated accordingly. Material changes will be communicated to you via in-app notification or email. Continued use of the App after such notification constitutes acceptance of the updated document.
